Clarksville Chronicle.
J. S. NEBLETT, Local Editor.
J. A. GRANT, Editor.
CLARKSVILLE, AUGUST 4, 1895.

To Correspondents.—CLARK.—Your communication contains so many good points and is so well written, that we are compelled to decline its publication. Besides it is probable that our readers who have not studied the Choctaw language would not appreciate its merits as high as it deserves. As Artemus Ward says—"the above is intended to be sarcastic."

BARNY BLYTHE.—Poetry received and shall appear next week. We accept your proposition, and return thanks for the interest manifested in our paper.

VILLIERS.—Too long, and no responsible name furnished—either one good cause for its non-appearance.

J. J. W.—Very good, and will publish as soon as we have an opportunity. Thanks for your efforts in behalf of the "Chronicle."

M. J. W.—Yours received. We cannot send to Cuba, no matter how large, unless the cash accompanies the order. Much obliged, but we don't view it in that light.

SPRING.—We haven't time to correct your communication. You should have done that yourself.

T.—Your contribution—"Rais Deceus," appears to-day. Very good—try again.

"To my Brother," is possible, but we prefer to wait for name. Would like to oblige.

VINCO.—Received at the eleventh hour, but there is always room for you. Glad to hear from you—old subscribers all rejoicing—new ones jubilant!

—Ladies all smiles—and all wishing to hear from you frequently! Our high-bred respects to you!

Subscriptions continue to come in daily. Keep up the good work, kind friends, "never weary in well doing."

Our readers must bear with us, for a short time, for not furnishing as much reading matter as usual. We have an unusual number of advertisements this week, which excludes many things we desired to publish. So soon as we can effect the arrangement we intend to enlarge our paper—and advertising custom is the very thing to bring about this result. We hope our readers will believe we intend doing the best we can for them, and at the same time allow us to do the same for ourselves. We hope soon to present a paper not surpassed by any in the State.

THANKS.—We return our thanks to Mr. ROBERT WHITE, of Louisville, for favors shown us while in the city. Bob used to reside in Clarksville, and is too well known to need any commendation from us. He is now of the firm of Lisbey, White & Cochran, wholesale dealers in boots and shoes, and we bespeak for them a liberal patronage from our mercantile friends.

REPRESENTING.—Not the sultry days of August through which we are perspiring and melting—not by any means—but it is decidedly so after passing through one of them that would test the endurance of a salamander, to receive an invitation to take a buggy ride, as we did from our friend Roach the other evening. His feet-footed friends struck up a Flora-Temple lick that sent the cooling breezes flying by us in such a refrigerant style that we almost forgot it was summer. Roach keeps fine stock at his stables—real blooded animals—and furnishes a turn-out in the horse-and-buggy line that is nothing less than "splendid elegance."

INGENUITY.—Our artist friend, W. S. Shackelford, has constructed a support for the arm of a gentleman who has been so unfortunate as to lose a portion of the bone between the elbow and shoulder, that is certainly a triumph of ingenuity over surgical art. It is made of silver bars, riveted together in such a way as to fit the arm closely, but not too close for comfort, and the firmness of the intervening bars, though allowing sufficient room for muscular action, supplies the place of the missing bone. The planning and execution of this work requires no little skill, and exhibits Mr. Shackelford's handiwork in amateur mechanism to a surprising degree.

WOLF! WOLF!—There has been such a general cry of "wolf" during the past few years without his appearing that we had given him out but a day or two ago we saw the veritable animal in town. He was not in sheep's clothing, as he is often said to be, but in a suit of black, of which he is the sole proprietor. We understand he was captured in Ohio county, in this State. He is a fine specimen of animated nature, being the size of a large dog—which he very much resembles.

ROBERT.—A couple of gentlemen living in Charlotte started for Nashville a few days since, intending to make some heavy purchases there—one of them having a considerable amount of green-back in his possession. After they had proceeded a short distance on their way, some men covered with bed quilts, with holes cut so as they could see, came out of the woods and demanded their horses and money. After relieving them of all they had, they left them to their fate.

Our informant did not know the names of either party—but circumstances certainly justify the conclusion that the thieves were acquainted with the gentlemen, and the fact of their having money in their possession.

—We learn that an order has been issued to the effect that after the 10th inst., no more rations will be given out to the contrabands—also that some disposition will be made of the refugees in our midst. If Col. Galt will see that the lazy, worthless negroes, who do nothing but lounge about the corners, are put to work or sent "beyond the lines," he should, and doubtless will, receive the unanimous thanks of this community. The refugees, contrabands, and the regiment or two of the canine species, in our city, are enough to demoralize any decent community.

Louisville Advertisements.
Lack of space, this week, forbids a detailed notice of all or any of our Louisville advertisements. We can but refer to their style of firm and business, promising, at another time, to say more concerning them. The following list embraces some of the best and most reliable business houses in the city!

Lisbey, White and Cochran, wholesale dealers in Boots and Shoes.—S. Barker & Co., wholesale and retail Dry Goods.—Sturman & Co., a general Import and Export Store.—Waller & Buckner, dealers in pure copper distilled Bourbon Whiskey.—Scott, Davison & Co., wholesale and retail dealers in Clothing and Furnishing Goods.—Godshaw, Flexner & Co., importers and dealers in China, Glass and Queensware.—S. Thomas, Merchant Tailor, keeps a stock of Furnishing goods and has them made to order.—E. Hellman & Sons, wholesale and retail dealers in Dry Goods and Clothing.—E. A. Robinson & Co., wholesale Druggists.—Craig, Truman & Co., wholesale dealers in Hats, Caps and Straw Goods.—Trabue, Davis & Co., dealers in staple and fancy Dry Goods, etc.—Terry & Smith, wholesale Grocers and Commission Merchants.—S. Casseday & Son, importers of Queensware, Glass and China.—G. Baumann, importer of Hardware, Cutlery, etc.—Hutchings, Duncan & Co., Grocers and Commission Merchants, and dealers in Leaf Tobacco, etc.—Prather & Smith, dealers in Hats, Caps and Ladies' Furs.—Hutchinson & Raine, wholesale dealers in Boots and Shoes.—Otter, Hackett & Co., Grocers and Commission Merchants.—H. S. Julian & Co., Bankers.—Dr. John Bull's Compound Cedron Bitters.

We would advise our merchants to give these houses a trial, believing that they will be treated in courteous and gentlemanly style, both in a business and social point of view.

NEGRO SOLDIER SHOT.—A few weeks ago, a negro soldier shot one of the white soldiers of this command, who has since died. The negro was placed in the guard house, to await trial, and has been confined there ever since. Last night, about 10 1-2 o'clock, some forty or fifty soldiers came over from the Fort, being highly enraged at the occurrence, and overpowered the guard, entered the guard house, and fired four times at the negro, each shot taking effect. The guard gave the alarm, but the shooting was done and the crowd dispersed before it was publicly known. It is thought that the negro will die to-day.

LOOK OUT!—We are authorized by the many friends of the young gentleman, who left this city, for the country, Wednesday morning, to call the attention of the public to his condition, lest some harm befall him, from those who are not apprised of the disorder which renders him irresponsible for his present conduct. The affection is termed, in modern diagnosis, "woman on the brain." It attacks men of all ages, but is usually most severe upon those of the age of this young gentleman. His case is a most aggravated one, and causes serious apprehension, lest he commit some irreparable folly. He is about the medium height, fair complexion, and of prepossessing manners, and talks with ease upon all other subjects, than that of his distemper. He left here with a large stock of hair oil, perfume, a "Dictionary of Poetical Quotations," "De Quincey's Etiquette," and a lot of "love drops." If the young gentleman should behave with violence to the girls, asking, hugging, &c., we hope they will not have him kicked and dragged out, but pardon it on account of his affliction.

—Mr. Ayer's, on Franklin Street, has sold his livery stable and stock, to Mr. Geo. P. Allen, of this county. Mr. Allen is a gentleman, and possesses qualities suitable for the successful carrying on of the business.

SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.—A. J. Fanning and J. O. Blain, will open the next session of their school the 1st Monday in September. The place and terms will be made known in a short time.

SURETY DEATH.—We are pained to learn that Mrs. Wilson, relict of the late Samuel Wilson, died suddenly at her residence, a few days ago.

SHOT HIMSELF.—We regret to learn that our young friend Jeff. Bolsaw, accidentally shot himself in the arm last Monday, near Allensville. The wound is not considered dangerous, but is very painful.

CITY SUBSCRIBERS.—Those of our city subscribers who have their papers delivered by the carrier, and who fail to get them on publication day, should notify us of the fact, immediately.

—It will be seen by reference to the head of our local columns, that FOUNDER & POLLARD intend to commence the sale of Tobacco, at Auction, on the 7th of October next. This is a move in the right direction.

—The river is falling, with 20 inches on Harpeth Shoals. The light draught steamer Alber, FRANK GRACE, Master, and W. B. CROSS, Clerk, will leave here for Nashville, Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, P. M. For freight or passage apply on board, or to P. A. BYRNE, Agent.

WOOD!—We will furnish the CHRONICLE to any of our friends who desire it, and take word in payment.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

MARION C. LAIN.—If this gentleman will call at the First Toll-gate, on the Clarksville and Hopkinsville Turnpike, he may hear something of interest to him.

LET those who have doubted the virtues of Bull's Cedron Bitters, if any such there be, read the following certificate from gentlemen well known in this community, and doubt no more.

Its general introduction into the army will save the lives of thousands of our soldiers.

LOUISVILLE, KY., June 3, 1893.

We, the undersigned, have seen the good effects produced by the use of Dr. John Bull's Cedron Bitters in cases of general debility and prostration of the system, and believe its general use would prevent disease and relieve much suffering. Among our soldiers particularly would this be the case, especially those who are exposed to miasmatic influence in the southern climate.

DR. JOHN BULL'S
COMPOUND
CEDRON BITTERS
The latest and most important discovery of the 19th Century.

NO man's name is more intimately connected with the history of Materia Medica in the United States, or more favorably known as a pioneer in medical discovery, than that of

DR. JOHN BULL,
of Louisville, Ky.

His inimitable preparation of SASSAPARILLA, has long stood at the head of the various compounds of that valuable drug.

His COMPOUND OF WILD CHERRY has become a household word throughout the West and South.

His WORM LOZENGES, in less than a year after their introduction, attained a reputation as widespread as the continent of America.

But the crowning glory of his life remains to be attained in his discovery, or rather combination, for he does not claim to be the discoverer of which is the basis of the Bitters now offered to the public. That honor belongs to the native inhabitants of Central America, to whom its virtues have been known for more than two hundred years. Armed with it, the Indian bids defiance to the most deadly malaria, and handles without fear the most venomous serpents. It is a belief with them that while there is a breath left in the body the Cedron is potent to cure, no matter what the disease may be.

While Dr. Bull is not prepared to endorse this extravagant pretension, he is nevertheless satisfied from a thorough examination of the evidence relating to its virtues, that as a remedy and preventive from all diseases arising from exposure, either to changes of weather and climate, or to the miasmatic influence, it stands and justly deserves the reputation it has so long enjoyed in Central America and the West India.

WITHOUT A RIVAL,

IN DYSPEPSIA
And its attendant train of symptoms, it acts more like a charm than a medicine. There is nothing in the range of Materia Medica, that can for a moment bear a comparison with it in this disease.

A full account of this wonderful plant may be found in the 11th edition of the U. S. Dispensatory, on pages 1287 and 1288.

A series of experiments in which Dr. Bull has been for years engaged, has just been brought to a successful termination, and he is now enabled to offer to the public a combination of Cedron with other approved tonics, the whole preserved in the best quality of copper-distilled Bourbon Whisky, which he is confident has no equal in the world.

He might furnish a volume of certificates, but the public have long since learned to estimate such things at their true value. The safest plan is for every one to test for himself the virtues of a new medicine.

GIVE THE
CEDRON BITTERS
One trial and you will never use any others.

It is not necessary to publish a long list of diseases in which the Cedron Bitters are specific.

In all diseases of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver or Kidneys,
In all affections of the Brain, depending upon derangement of the Stomach and Bowels,
GOUT, RHEUMATISM and NEURALGIA,
And in
FEVER AND AGUE,

It is destined to supersede all others. It not only cures these diseases but prevents them.

A wine glass full of the Bitters taken an hour before each meal, will obviate the effects of the most unhealthy climate, and screen the person taking it against diseases under the most trying exposure.

Sold by Druggists and Grocers generally.
